Westminster at 1.25 p.m.)
You'll reach Harrison Hot Springs at 3.50 p.m.

You may wish to relax in front of the huge stone fireplace in the main lounge or choose a comfortable chair overlooking beautiful Harrison Lake and the surrounding historic mountains.

Or you may prefer to walk along the lakeshore, through the gardens or up to the two bubbling sulphur pools a few hundred feet from the hotel.

The full-course dinner will be served in the hotel's main dining room.

Your bargain package ticket, which will cost you only $7.95, will include two-way transportation, the full-course meal (including tax and gratuities) and full guest privileges at the hotel. (Return fare alone normally costs $6.25.)

Your bus will leave Harrison on the return journey at 7.05 p.m., arriving back at the depot in Vancouver at 9.45 p.m.

Reserve your place on this exciting trip by phoning MU Mutual 3-2421 by 9 p.m., Monday, Nov. 9.

Formula for a Good Day!

Here's a formula for a day's travel you won't soon forget.

Start with a fall trip through the beautiful Fraser Valley. Add a visit to Harrison Hot Springs, one of B.C.'s most beautiful resorts.

Throw in a full course meal in the Gardenia Room at the Harrison Hot Springs Hotel and top it off with a bargain package fare.

That's what you'll enjoy if you join Pacific Stage Lines' trip to Harrison Hot Springs on Remembrance Day, November 11.

Your bus will leave Vancouver Bus Depot, Dunsmuir and Cambie, rain or shine, at 1.05 p.m., allowing you ample time to take part in Remembrance Day ceremonies first. (Connecting bus will leave New
