except Monday, pitch and putt golf, tennis and checkers.

There's a lot to enjoy at Stanley Park. And it's easy to get there by bus.

Just board a Stanley Park No. 11 at any bus stop on Pender Street west of Carral. It will take you to the Stanley Park bus loop alongside Lost Lagoon.

From there, you can easily reach many points of interest.

On Sundays and holidays, there's a special "Round-the-park" service that will take you to any of 13 scenic park stops.

These special buses leave the loop every 1/2 hour from 1 to 6 p.m. - weather permitting.

No transfers are taken or issued on this park route. A 15¢ fare will take you to any of the 13 points of interest or all the way around the park.

Extra service for Tattoo fans

Regular transit service on Hastings will be doubled between 7.45 and 8.45 p.m., July 14-22 to carry fans to the Military Searchlight Tattoo at Empire Stadium.

There'll also be express buses providing non-stop service to the Stadium from the parking lot at Oakridge Shopping Centre, 41st and Cambie, commencing at 8 p.m.

There'll be a seat for everyone on this special service and the express fare will be only 75¢ return.

Scots to rally at Brockton Oval

Vancouver Scots will be out in force at Stanley Park's Brockton Oval Saturday, July 22, to test their strength and skill or to renew acquaintances.

The occasion will be the 75th annual Caledonian Games sponsored by the St. Andrew's and Caledonian Society.

One of the feature attractions will be a contest of pipe bands from across Canada and the United States for the Stewart Trophy.

Also featured will be track and field events, highland dancing and a massed pipe band of over 200 pipers and drummers.

The program starts at 9 a.m. and continues to late afternoon.

Special buses will run as required during the day beginning at 10 a.m. from the Stanley Park bus loop at Lost Lagoon to Brockton Oval. Fare each way will be 15¢ for adults and 7¢ or one token for children.

Fun for Everyone

There's fun for people of all ages at world-famous Stanley Park.

Everyone enjoys the frolicking seals and otters, the monkey comedians, the formal penguins and the friendly black squirrels who eat peanuts from your hands.

There's excitement in the wide range of beautiful trees, the views of mountain and ocean.

There's a variety of recreation including pony rides for children between 11 a.m. and 6 p.m. daily.
