Bus service during PNE

Look for the "PNE" sign on the front of buses during the Pacific National Exhibition. These buses will take you directly to the big show. There always is good bus service on Hastings Street and for the period of the PNE we have added more buses.

'Wonderland '65'

Peter, Peter Pumpkin Eater
Had a wife and couldn't keep her.
The note she left said, "Pete, I hate
Washing pumpkin off your plate."

"Now I don't want to call it quits
But washing dishes gives me fits.
My hands are red, my back is bent
And when we entertain, I'm spent!"

So Peter, Peter just to quash her
Bought his wife a new dishwasher.
Now she's back and they're ecstatically
Washing dishes automatically.

A variety of autumn tours

Autumn is a beautiful season in British Columbia. Especially in the interior, trees take on rich coloring ranging through yellows to brown, rust and rich red. Too, wild animals come down close to highways in National Parks and other protected areas.

You can still take a relaxing conducted tour to Barker-ville, one way by de luxe bus and the other way by the smart PGE "Dayliner" coach. See the interesting restoration of the historic "Gold Capital" of 100 years ago, gold "dig-gings" and the wonderful scenery of the Fraser Canyon, the Cariboo and the lake country from Lillooet to Squamish. Next tour leaves September 5.

On September 9 a three-day tour takes off for Wenatchee, Grand Coulee Dam and the Canadian Okanagan. This too is a lovely trip rich in fall colors and fine scenery.

On September 17 the last 1965 tour to Rogers Pass leaves Vancouver. This very popular trip travels by the exciting Fraser Canyon to majestic Rogers Pass, and returns by the beautiful Okanagan.

For information and reservations for these and other fall tours, call MUI-6381.

Travel Notes

Thirty days in Mexico for only $99.00, including two meals a day! Spend a delightful, healthful holiday at Spa Penafiel, 150 miles south of Mexico City. Relax in the hotsprings and enjoy swimming, riding, hiking and golf. Or you can have three weeks for $89.00, two weeks for $79.00. Low Canadian Pacific Airlines fares to get you there.

Now you can go camping in Hawaii and roam about the islands as you wish. For about $65.00 a week, you get a modern foldout trailer to accommodate four with everything you need from pillow cases to a Hibachi with charcoal. Yes, you get soap, paper napkins, maps and insect repellent, too. A car to tow the trailer can be obtained from the same agency at very reasonable rates. Round-trip economy air fare to Hawaii by Canadian Pacific Airlines is only $263.80 Canadian.

If you are real jaded, man, here's something new. It's an elephant rodeo in Thai, which starts with ceremonies to placate the forest spirits, followed by lassoing of wild elephants, an elephant parade and elephant races, then a tug-of-war between a huge elephant and 70 men. This is just a busy piece of a 23-day tour of the Orient by Canadian Pacific Airlines.

For information on any of these tours, or for tours to other places, call Pacific Tour and Travel Bureau at 681-6381.

A woman motorist was driving along a country road when she noticed a couple of repair men climbing telephone poles. "Fools!" she exclaimed to her companion, "they must think I never drove a car before."

'DOWNTOWNER' REFUND TO MID-DAY BOWLERS

We'd like to doff our cap to De Luxe Bowling Centre of 420 Homer Street (just off Hastings). The centre will offer to its bowling patrons free coffee, free instruction and, best of all in our opinion, a 25¢ refund if they have a valid "Downtowner" pass.

This makes De Luxe Bowling Alleys the first business in Vancouver to offer the price of a Downtowner Pass to encourage people to shop and be entertained in the downtown area. The offer is especially directed at West End residents who can use a Downtowner Pass to ride without restriction between downtown and the West End between 9:00 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

Schedule changes in N. Burnaby

Starting September 3, there will be minor changes in times for bus service in North Burnaby. Principally affected will be non-rush hour service on the Westridge, Kitchener, Capitol Hill and Government routes. Generally, buses will leave a few minutes earlier in order to tie in with the new bus service to Simon Fraser University.

New timetables are available. Ask your bus operator or telephone AM1-4211 and one will be mailed to you.
