Coming Events

• Dec. 26 — Travelogue films, B.C. Building, P.N.E. Grounds, 2:30 p.m. Free admission.

Maritime Museum open on holiday

The Vancouver Maritime Museum will be open to the public on Christmas Day, Boxing Day and New Year's Day from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., admission free.

Of special interest, and new to the Maritime Museum, is an Eskimo Kayak and a Nootka Canoe which have been transferred from the Vancouver City Museum.

Visitors are reminded that owing to the construction of a shelter for the R.C.M.P. Schooner "St. Roch", the entrance to the museum is temporarily on the north side of the building.

A self-made tycoon was being interviewed about his fortune. "I never hesitate," he stated, "to give full credit to my wife, for her assistance."

"And how did she help?" asked a reporter.

"Frankly," he said, "I was curious to see if there was any income she couldn't live beyond."

One of the advantages of riding our buses is that you don't have to worry about the police department's Christmas road blocks.

Stenographer to new girl: "You'll like it here. Lots of opportunities for advances".

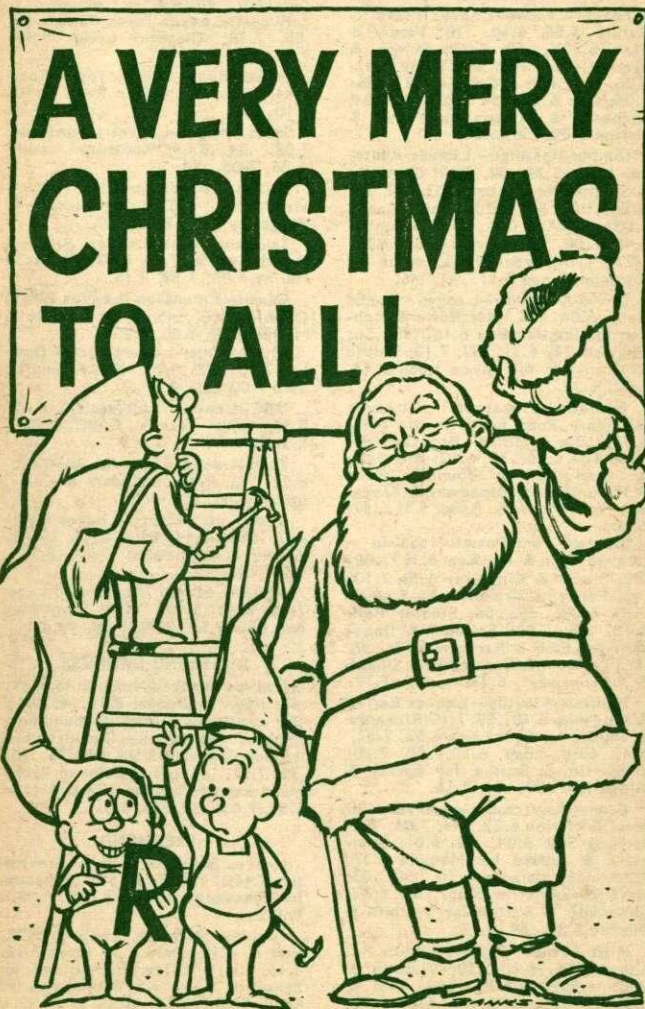

There's no limit to the good a man can do if he doesn't care who gets the credit.

Diet is a short period of starvation preceding a gain of five pounds.
