Barnet Fastbus Service

Effective Friday, October 18, the 980 Fastbus Barnet Fastbus service presently operated by Pacific Stage Lines will be taken over by B.C. Hydro's Metro Transit. Changes will be made to frequency of service, the Coquitlam terminus will be moved a short distance, and standard transit fares will come into effect. Too, the exact fare will be required.

The basic daytime service will be improved to provide a 30-minute frequency from Monday to Saturday. On Sundays, there will be 30-minute service from noon to 6 p.m. Otherwise, service will continue on an hourly basis. During rush-hours, there will be additional buses with frequency to 15 minutes during peak periods. Supplemental timetables will be available on PSL buses next week.

In Coquitlam, the terminus will be moved to Wilson Street near Kingsway adjacent to the Recreation Centre. Recently, the Vancouver terminus was moved around the corner to Hornby on the north side of Nelson.

Effective with takeover by Metro Transit, the interzone fare will be 40¢ from the first bus in the morning to 10 a.m., and from 3 to 7 p.m. Monday to Friday. At all other times, the interzone fare is only 25¢.

However a significant change will be that an exact fare must be deposited in the farebox. All passengers must carry the necessary change as Hydro bus operators do not carry any money for making change. P.S.L. operators will stop selling commutation tickets, but tickets outstanding when the service changes hands will be honored.

980 Barnet Fastbus operates from downtown Vancouver via Hastings Street and the Barnet Highway to Coquitlam.

Horse Racing Ends Monday

There are only two more days of racing at Exhibition Park. Saturday and Monday end the 1974 season. Saturday's feature race will be the B.C. Premier's Championship for 3-year-olds and up over 1-1/8 miles.

Take a B.C. Hydro race express to the grandstand. Express buses leave downtown Vancouver and also New Westminster, picking up through Burnaby. Fare is 40¢ each way. Call 261-4211 for information.

Changes to Service Vancouver-Nanaimo

Effective October 21, there will be changes to bus service between Vancouver and Nanaimo. Buses will leave the Vancouver Bus Depot daily at 7:30, 9:35, 11:50 a.m., 2:05, 4:20, 6:35 and 9:10 p.m., Fridays and Sundays only, additional departures at 3:05, 5:20 and 7:55 p.m. Daily departures from the Nanaimo Bus Depot at 8:00, 10:15, 12:30 a.m., 2:45, 5:00, 8:15 and 9:30 p.m., Fridays and Sundays only, additional trips at 3:45, 6:00 and 7:15 p.m.

Fares remain at $2.95 each way, $1.95 on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays except holidays.

For information about pickups between the depot and the ferry terminal, call 683-2421 in Vancouver.

Canadian History in Film Series

The Centennial Museum's well patronized film series, with screenings every Friday and Saturday evening at 8 p.m. in the downstairs theatre, continues on October 18 and 19 with three historical pictures.

"Timepiece" is concerned with the reconstruction, restoration and furnishing of Canadian historical sites; "Louisberg" shows the restoration of the historic fortress on Canada's Atlantic Coast, and Ville-Marie shows the remnants of the old village which became the Montreal of today.

Tickets are sold only at the door and are 50¢ for adults and 25¢ for children. For information on how to get to the museum by bus, call 261-4211.

Scenic Shopping Tour Combines Fall Holiday

Oregon has a wealth of fine scenery and some huge impressive power projects on the Columbia River. Here is a special Pacific Stage Line's fall tour which will combine these interesting features, with the opportunity to visit two large shopping centres. Departure is November 8 and it is not too early to make your reservations now because hotel accommodation must be made for you.

The route is into the U.S. via Bellingham, Seattle, and Tacoma, with a lunch-stop at the big Tacoma Mall, to arrive at Portland about 5 p.m. Two nights at the Cosmopolitan Motor Inn.

Day two, take a drive along the Columbia River highway to visit Bonneville Dam with a lunch-break at Hood River. Arrive back at the Inn about 4:30 p.m. While in Portland you can visit the big Lloyd Shopping Centre.

On Day 3, you head north, stopping again at the Tacoma Mall and then at the Duty Free Store at the Border. The bus is back in Vancouver about 6 p.m.

The fare includes standard items (all transportation, accommodation and handling of baggage in and out of the inn): single $73.45, double each $62.50, twin each $64.50. Call 681-6381 for information and reservations.

Unique "Videobag" at Burnaby Art Gallery

Artist Taki Bluesinger ran to the Burnaby Art Gallery from Vancouver City Hall on Wednesday, October 9 to open Videobag, a month long exhibition of video works, which is in itself a marathon event. More than 100 artists, poets and media resource persons are involved in the show. It continues daily until November 6, with performances, workshops, readings, theatre events, video environments and recording sessions, concerts, and an exhibition of graphics.

There will be free public performances every Wednesday evening and Sunday afternoon. Call 876-8338 for information.
