

Fast and Frequent Special Bus Services for Pacific National Exhibition

To assist everyone to get to and from the Pacific National Exhibition in comfort and without the hassle of fighting traffic and long line-ups in and out of the limited parking available, B.C. Hydro is operating a greatly expanded bus service which includes additional service on regular routes and special services. Here are details of the various routes which provide these special services through Labour Day. For additional information call 261-2261.

Hastings Street

An augmented service is operating on the 14-Hastings route between downtown Vancouver and the PNE grounds.

New Westminster

From 8th Street and Columbia, service via Columbia, 12th Street, Kingsway, Earles, Renfrew to the Coliseum loop. Regular fares apply. These buses are signed "New Westminster - PNE via Kingsway - Renfrew".

Lougheed Mall

Service from Lougheed Mall via Austin, Lougheed, Willingdon, Halifax, Douglas, Boundary, Hastings, Renfrew to the Coliseum loop. Again, regular fares and transfers will apply. These buses are signed "Lougheed Mall - PNE only".

PNE Express via Broadway

Service along Broadway for PNE patrons, offering passengers from the southern areas of the city a more convenient trip to and from the Fair. It runs from Broadway and Granville and the PNE grounds via Broadway and Renfrew.

The service is on an express basis and stopping only at transfer points. Buses carry the sign "PNE EXPRESS VIA BROADWAY" and regular fares and transfers apply.

North Shore

Day Trips to Scenic Places

Pacific Stage Lines offers a year-around program of one-day trips to places of special interest and splendid scenery. Your ticket is your reservation; pick it up at the Depot (Cambie and Dunsmuir) well prior to the departure date to avoid disappointment as most trips are restricted to one bus. Here are the current trips:

Birch Bay - leave at 1:15 p.m. for lovely Birch Bay in Washington State. Take your picnic lunch and enjoy this fine beach. Back about 6 p.m. Adults $3.50, children $2.00.

Mt. Baker - leave at 9 a.m. on September 6 to drive up to the 4000-foot-high summer and winter playground, then to Bellingham for a two-hour visit. Back about 6:30 p.m. Adults $6.50, children $3.50.

Two Holidays to Long Beach

This Fall, Pacific Stage Lines can again offer a choice of escorted tours to magnificent and fascinating Long Beach in Pacific Rim National Park on the scenic West Coast of Vancouver Island. This year may be the last time that accommodation is available in Wickaninnish Inn on the beach as it is to become a Federal Government office for the park.

The route is via ferry from Horseshoe Bay to Vancouver Island, drive to Port Alberni, then over the wilderness highway to the park. Visit the fishing villages of Tofino and Ucluelet, famous Cathedral Grove of huge ancient trees and Little Qualicum Falls.

"Pacific Rim National Park" is a four-day tour leaving September 9 and 26. Single $157.40, double each $142.40, twin each $149.40.

"Wickaninnish Inn and Tofino" is three days, basically the same tour, with departures September 16, September 21 and October 4. Single $118.10, double each $108.10, twin each $113.10. Call 681-6381 for reservations or further information.

The fire you kindle for your enemy often burns yourself more than him.

Coming Events

• Aug. 23 - "Rummage Sale", St. Andrew's Broadview Anglican Church, 3426 Smith Ave., Burnaby (near Canada Way), 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

• Aug. 23 - Fall Festival & Garden Party, 409 Blair Avenue, New Westminster, 10:00 - 4:00 p.m. Admission $1.00.

Spanish Landing Feature of PSL Tour

Here is a delightful opportunity to visit historic Friendly Cove on the West Coast of Vancouver Island, site of the first Spanish settlement. Reach it aboard the "Uchuck III" on a scenic cruise on Micalat Arm of Nootka Sound, departing from Gold River. It is one of the features of "Grand Circle of Vancouver Island and the Sunshine Coast", a five-day tour leaving Vancouver September 15.

Ferries take you to the Sunshine Coast from Horseshoe Bay, across lovely Jervis Inlet to visit Powell River, over Georgia Strait to Comox on Vancouver Island, and finally from Swartz Bay out of Victoria to Tsawwassen.

On this escorted tour you will see the beautiful Sunshine Coast, tour the big paper-making city of Powell River, visit Miracle Beach, the Big Qualicum Fisheries Project, the British Columbia Forest Museum, Royal Roads College and famous Butchart Gardens, as well as magnificent Strathcona Provincial Park with its lakes and snow-capped mountains.

Fares are $198.30 single, $168.85 twin. Call 681-6381 for reservations and further information.

Smallest man in history - the soldier who went to sleep on his watch.

• Aug. 26 & 27 - "Rummage Sale", Our Lady of Mercy School Auditorium, 7481 - 10th Ave., Burnaby (corner of 10th Ave. & Kingsway, on the New Westminster, Burnaby boundary). Tuesday: 7 - 9 p.m. Wednesday, 10 - 12 noon.

"HEY, ALICE - LOOK WHAT HE CAN DO WITH OUR ENERGY DOLLAR!"

Less Energy - High Comfort

For all homeowners or anyone planning to own a home, the big event at the 1975 Pacific National Exhibition is the Home Showcase. Here are many fine displays which add to the pleasure of living and, more important, many which assist homeowners to operate their homes more efficiently and with greater economy.

B.C. Hydro will be there to advise on means to conserve energy. "How to get the most out of your energy dollar" is the theme. To assist the utility staff there will be experts from insulation manufacturers and from firms which install insulation to explain the merits of various products and how to use them to the best advantage. Get tips on how to do it yourself.

Here in a specially constructed building, 20 by 40 feet, you can see how insulation and weather-stripping are placed in position, and see various types of both in actual use. This is the opportunity to ask questions and receive dependable answers. Help yourself to live in a comfortable home and at the same time cut dollars from your energy bills.

B.C. Hydro has a limited supply of an excellent booklet "100 Ways to Save Energy and Money in the Home" which has been produced by the Federal Government. This is available to people seriously interested in conservation of energy in the home.

"Blood Drive '75"

A weekend for two at the Hyatt Regency - a trip to Victoria on Pacific Western Airlines. These are just two of the many prizes being offered by the Vancouver Jaycees to Red Cross blood donors who turn out the week of August 22 to 28 to help ease the summer blood shortage. Regular clinics at 326 Howe and 4750 Oak Street, plus mobile clinics in New Westminster, North Burnaby, Richmond, and the Vancouver General Hospital. Phone the Canadian Red Cross for dates and times. 879-7551.

Local Services Commence September 2 In White Rock, North Surrey, North Delta

Effective Tuesday, September 2, new local services commence in White Rock, North Surrey and North Delta. White Rock will have four new routes: Marine Drive, North Bluff, Cranely 356 and Russell 355. North Surrey will be served locally by 140th Street 325 and Grosvenor 328. Serving both North Surrey and North Delta will be route 116th Street 316. The latter three routes will operate out of the Whalley Exchange.

These new routes are the continuation of a program designed by the Bureau of Transit Services and operated by B.C. Hydro to provide a better local bus service south of the Fraser River.

The Buzzer of August 29 will contain full details of the routes which go into service on September 2.

Valuable Prizes for Lucky Programs

A luxury $100,000 Dream Home, trips for two to Japan and Okinawa, opportunities to Explore Canada, and a "car-a-day" for 17 days constitute the prize program package for PNE '75.

In all, prizes valued at more than $200,000 could be won by purchasers of $2.00 programs which are purchased at the PNE. Each has five attached coupons. Daily draws for a vacation and a car are made at 11:05 p.m. while the winning ticket for the Dream Home will be drawn on Labour Day, September 1.

How to Find Your Way Around the 1975 PNE

The big, exciting and entertaining Pacific National Exhibition continues through next week, ending on Labour Day. Star Spectacular Events include the finals of the Miss PNE Contest with a Pageant on August 19. Golden-Age Day is August 27 when Golden-Agers are admitted free to the grounds until 6 p.m. Children's Day is August 25, with kiddies under the age of 12 allowed into the ground free until 6 p.m. For them there is a special free show "Enchantment Inc." at 11:00 a.m. The 1:30 p.m. performance of the Military Tattoo on August 27 admits Golden-Agers for only $1.00. At the other four performances, Golden-Agers and anyone under 16 years of age are admitted for $1.00 off regular prices of $4, $5, and $6. Tickets can be reserved for all Star Spectacular Shows at the Vancouver Ticket Centre, 620 Hamilton St. Telephone 683-3255. Adult prices for the shows include admission to the PNE grounds when tickets are purchased in advance.

Military Tattoo

Star Spectacular, for the first time, will include the pomp and pageantry of a full-scale military tattoo.

The participating units are the Pipes and Drums and Military Band of the 1st Battalion, The Black Watch (Royal Highland Regiment); the Band of the Royal Fiji Military Forces and the Band of the Brigade of Gurkhas with the Drum Corps of the Second King Edward VII's Own (Sirmoor) Rifles and the Regimental Kikri Dancers.

Performances will be given August 26, August 27 and August 28 at 8 p.m., with a matinee on the 27th at 1:30 p.m. to which Golden-agers are admitted for $1.00.
