Professor: "Didn't you miss my class yesterday?"

Student: "Not in the least."

Dad: "My goodness, you ask a lot of questions. I'd like to know what would have happened if I'd asked so many questions when I was a boy."

Son: "Maybe you'd have been able to answer some of mine."

SkyTrain Connections for Coquitlam and Northeast Burnaby

Effective September 5

Coquitlam and Northeast Burnaby residents will have improved rush-hour connections to SkyTrain, and easier access to destinations from New Westminster to Vancouver.

151 Port Coquitlam Centre/Vancouver

152 Port Coquitlam Centre/Vancouver

These routes will continue to provide all-day bus service between Coquitlam and Northeast Burnaby and downtown Vancouver. Departure times will be adjusted slightly.

154 Lougheed Mall/Coquitlam Recreation Centre/22nd Street Station

The #154 service will provide service between Loughheed Mall and 22nd Street Station, via the Coquitlam Recreation Centre. Passengers proceeding on to downtown Vancouver can transfer to SkyTrain at 22nd Street Station or to #151/152 buses at Loughheed Mall.

155 Coquitlam Recreation Centre/ Lougheed Mall

The #155 service will now operate between 22nd Street Station and the Coquitlam Recreation Centre only. Eastbound service will be rerouted via Brunette, Lebleu, Alderson and Marmont, instead of Nelson and Alderson, in the Maillardville area.

Service along Como Lake to Loughheed Mall will now be provided by the new #156.

156 Coquitlam Recreation Centre/ Lougheed Mall

The #156 is a new route for central Coquitlam with a new rush-hour destination — SkyTrain. During rush hours the #156 service will provide a direct connection to New Westminster Station, starting from the Coquitlam Recreation Centre and travelling via Loughheed Mall. In off-peak times, the #156 will provide service between

(over)

Coquitlam Recreation Centre and Loughheed Mall. During rush hours, the combined #156, #147 and #148 services will double the number of trips between Loughheed Mall and New Westminster Station — from every 15 minutes to every 7½ minutes.
