Psychiatrist: "That habit of talking to yourself is nothing to worry about."

Patient: "Maybe not Doc, but I'm such a bore."

Sunday service for Labour Day

Let BC Transit feed you to the Lions/Ottawa game Tuesday, September 5. Depending on where you live in the Lower Mainland you can take a bus to downtown Vancouver and walk to the Stadium, or take a local bus or SeaBus to SkyTrain and get off at Stadium Station. It's a winning idea. Think about it: no traffic to fight and no parking hassles. Extra SkyTrain service will be provided before and after the game.

A capital idea when Ottawa comes to town

Transit Fall Service Changes

Full rush hour levels return September 5 to meet fall/winter back-to-school and back-to-work travel demands. In addition, there will be significant improvements in service to UBC, SFU and Capilano College; routes in North Burnaby will be reorganized to meet demands in new growth areas; a new rush hour route will be introduced in Coquitlam's Westwood Plateau; and improved rush hour service will be provided in Surrey's East Guildford-Fleetwood area, on the Lougheed and Barnet corridors and on White Rock/Vancouver services. (Full details inside.)

FAST TRAX TO HIGHER EDUCATION

Students, save your energy for your studies. The roads to higher education are more efficient than ever. Inside you'll find a complete list of transit services to universities and colleges, including routes that have been extended or improved.

NEW ALL-DAY, ANY-DAY, ONE-ZONE FARES FOR POST-SECONDARY STUDENTS

With a one-zone FareCard, Student I.D. and a Fast Trax Transit Slip, post-secondary students can travel two or three zones at no additional charge. (Details inside.)

Remember when health foods were whatever your mother said you'd eat or else?

A new transit exchange designed to improve transfers between routes in the vicinity of Brentwood Mall, and to bring service closer to the expanded Mall, will open some time in September. Routes using the exchange and the days at which they will stop are indicated on the map above.
