New Vancouver terminus for North Van buses

New prepaid fares effective April 1

Spring Service Changes

Spring is in the air and transit routes are being adjusted to meet seasonal demand in the Lower Mainland. Highlights include increased service to Stanley Park, Capilano Road visitor attractions and Tsawwassen Ferry Terminal, and reduced service to the UBC and SFU campuses.

A monthly FareCard is a convenient way for the frequent transit user to get around and to save money. Every ride over 36 is free and other members of the family and friends can use it when you aren't. A one-zone card is valid for unlimited rides within one zone during rush hours and across all zones at other times. For college and university students with a valid ID card bearing a Fast Trax sticker, it's good for unlimited travel throughout the system at any time.

FareSavers for convenience and savings of $1.25 to $2.00 per book of 10. Single tickets are also available. Off-peak, one and two-zone tickets are valid for three-zone travel.

From over 900 entries, five correct answers were drawn. The winners, each of whom will receive a one-zone FareCard, are: Una Grayston, Vancouver; John Healy, Vancouver; Pam Hurren, North Vancouver; Willa Robinson, New Westminster; and Enrique Yep, Vancouver.

We asked you to name 13 of the 14 shopping areas to be found in the puzzle. They were:

Steveston, Lansdowne, Chinatown, Lonsdale Quay, Oakridge, Brentwood, Semiahmoo, Metrotown, Park Royal, Gastown, Kerrisdale, Granville Island, Scottsdale, Robson St

Student: "But I don't think I deserve a zero."

Prof: "Neither do I, but it's the lowest mark I'm allowed to give."
