Transit "lights up" Christmas for Woodlands, Riverview Residents

BC Transit and volunteer members of the Independent Canadian Transit Union are again providing tours of festively lit neighbourhoods of New Westminster, Burnaby, Coquitlam and Port Coquitlam for Woodlands residents and Riverview patients.

On Tuesday, December 12, three transit buses took residents of Woodlands through selected areas of New Westminster and Burnaby.

On Friday, December 15, beginning at 7 pm, it's the turn of Riverview patients. Ten buses will take them on a tour of some of the more decoratively lit neighbourhoods in Coquitlam and Port Coquitlam.

BC Transit supplies the buses and operators volunteer their time for the annual Christmas Lights Tours. Volunteer transit supervisors and local police also provide assistance. The organizer of this year's event, the 42nd, is BC Transit operator Kal Gosal.
