U-PASS summer service changes

Learn more, share your ideas for Canada Line

By 2009, 40 per cent more residents will have access to rapid transit services with the introduction of the Canada Line, linking Richmond, the airport and Vancouver and the Evergreen Line – 11 kilometres of light rail transit linking neighbourhoods between Coquitlam, Port Moody and Burnaby. TransLink is committed to involving commuters in the design of these important new services and is offering a series of public consultation meetings open to everyone. If you would like to learn more and to share your ideas, here is a list of upcoming meeting dates:

Transit service changes, effective Apr 24

The new phase of construction of the Canada Line, the rapid-transit link between Downtown Vancouver, the Vancouver International Airport and Richmond, will mean changes in bus routes through Vancouver's downtown core, effective Apr 24.

TransLink is also making U-Pass service adjustments to meet summer's reduced demand. Look inside for a list of changes and visit TransLink's website at www.translink.bc.ca for more details.
