

Access to Granville SkyTrain Station temporarily restricted, effective Oct. 23

Beginning Monday, Oct. 23, the Seymour Street entrance to Granville SkyTrain Station will be closed until further notice for ceiling lighting repairs. There will also be no access to the ticket vending machines located at the end of the corridor, next to The Bay.

Please use the new Dunsmuir Street entrance (the newly installed elevator makes this entrance fully accessible) or the new street-level access from the Granville Street entrance.

TransLink apologizes for any inconvenience and advises that notification of the re-opening of the Seymour Street entrance will be featured in an upcoming issue of The Buzzer.

Routing change for #44 UBC/Downtown bus

Due to construction for the Canada Line in downtown Vancouver, the terminus for the #44 UBC will be changed, effective Monday, Oct. 16.

Beginning this date, the #44 UBC will no longer turn northbound off Hastings Street onto Granville. The bus will turn onto Seymour instead.

The #44 UBC terminus will move from its current location on Cordova (near side) at Seymour, to Seymour at Hastings (far side).

Please note: This change will remain in effect for approximately two years, until the Canada Line is completed.

Vancity U-Pass benefits students and environment

Since the Vancity U-Pass was introduced in the fall of 2003, Greater Vancouver greenhouse gas emissions have been reduced by approximately 36,000 metric-tonnes – the equivalent of removing 2,400 cars from our roads every year!

Vancity U-Pass offers students at the University of British Columbia and the University of Simon Fraser a significant discount on transit in an effort to reduce the number of cars on our roads, greenhouse emissions, and to reduce campus traffic and the demand for parking.

The program was an instant success and continues to benefit students and the environment. The universities report that campus traffic is down and parking has been reduced by 10 to 15 per cent.

The Vancity U-Pass program provides 60,000 students with unlimited access to the transit services across Great Vancouver during the school year. Since 2003, Transit ridership increased by 68 per cent at UBC and 48 per cent at SFU. Today, 80 per cent of SFU and UBC students use their Vancity U-Pass, for a total of nine million trips each year.

Vancity U-Pass has won "Sustainable Community" and "Transportation Excellence" national awards. For more information on Vancity U-Pass, visit translink.bc.ca
