Step 1

Purchase a refundable Compass Card

When you get a Compass Card, you'll pay a $6 refundable deposit. Refer to page 22 if you have a HandyCard, BC Bus Pass, CNIB Pass, or U-Pass BC.

Which Compass Card should I get?

Are you aged 13 to 18 or 65 and over? Get the orange Concession Compass Card

Are you aged 19 to 64?
Get the blue Adult Compass Card

What is the $6 deposit?

When your balance is low, the deposit gives you the security of making a trip as long as you have $0.01 (one cent) on our card when you start your journey. Your card will dip into a negative balance and you will need to top-up with Stored Value before starting your next trip. You can get your $6 deposit back by returning your card to the TransLink Customer Service Centre at Waterfront Station.

Compass Fare Products

Products can be loaded onto a Compass Card, separately or in combination:

Stored Value

It's just like having cash on your card. Paying with Stored Value gives you the same rate as FareSavers.

Passes

Monthly Passes, DayPasses, and West Coast Express Return Passes can be loaded onto a Compass Card. Compass Monthly Passes are valid for the entire calendar month.

Multiple Products

When you have more than one product on your Compass Card, the system activates a pass first (starting with a Monthly Pass, followed by a DayPass) and then dips into Stored Value.

Note: It's best to load a DayPass only if you intend to use it the next time you travel. If you want to travel using Stored Value and a DayPass is present, the system will activate your DayPass first.

Step 4

Call us to link your Compass Card and HandyDART account

Using Compass on HandyDART

Book your HandyDART trip as you normally would and make sure to always bring your Compass Card.

When boarding a HandyDART vehicle, only a tap-in is required. You do not need to tap out to end a HandyDART trip.

Your attendant or HandyDART driver can always help if you require assistance tapping.

How to tap on HandyDART and buses:

Remove your Compass Card from your wallet or get your lanyard ready.

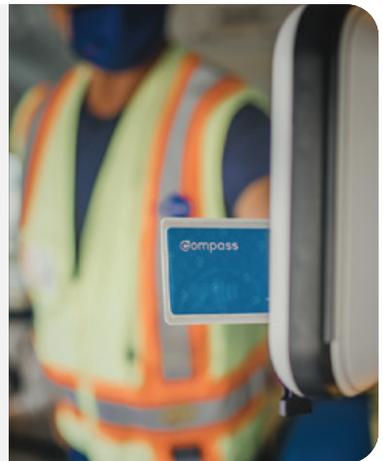

Hold your Compass Card flat against the card reader until you hear a beep and see a check mark to proceed.

When you tap, the card reader will indicate the fare deducted and the remaining balance, or date the pass expires.

Avoid charging the wrong card!

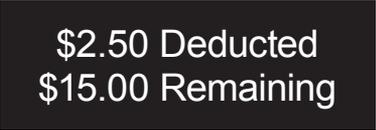

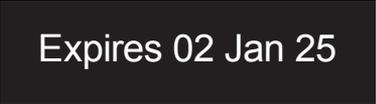

Do not tap your wallet, as the card reader may accidentally charge a credit card instead of your Compass Card.

Understanding Different Tap Messages

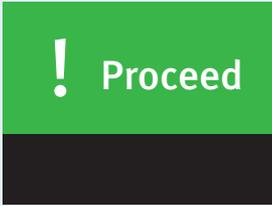

Compass products generate different display messages when you tap in or tap out: valid transaction, low balance warning, and invalid transaction.

When a taxi picks you up for a HandyDART Trip

Present your Compass Card and the taxi driver will note the last four digits of your card. You will not need to tap your Compass Card.

The cost of the trip is the same as a HandyDART vehicle and will be deducted from your account.

Your card balance will be updated the next day when you tap your Compass Card on a card reader (on HandyDART, bus, fare gate, or Compass Vending Machine).

You can still pay your fare with cash or credit card. Credit card payments will be charged the same as a 1-Zone Adult cash fare.
