

SkyTrain Mad Lib

1. In a group of three, label yourselves A, B and C.
2. Fill in the blanks without reading the rest.
3. Read aloud and make it silly!

In the style of an airplane safety announcement:

A: Hello _____ SkyTrain passengers.
(adjective: a describing word)

B: Welcome to _____ Station.
(name of a cartoon)

C: Before your trip to _____, we'd like to remind you of a few safety tips.
(fictional place in a book)

A: First of all, when you _____ up to the faregates, you'll need to be _____ with someone that has a Compass Card or ticket.
(verb: an action word) (same verb ending in 'ING')

B: This could be your mom, or your grandpa _____, or your teenage cousin _____.
(name) (funny name for a pet fish)

C: When they tap their card on the widest gate, it will swing open _____, so you can all walk through together.
(emotion ending in 'LY')

A: Once you are through the gates, _____ your way to the train platform.
(verb)

B: Please stand back from the edge, behind the yellow line and hum the tune of _____ while you wait for the train.
(a popular song)

C: When the train doors open, you will hear "This is a train to _____"
(same fictional place as before)

A: If you need help along the way, you can use the speaker phone.

B: Or press the yellow strip along the window.

C: Or text 87777 and a SkyTrain attendant or Transit Police officer will be _____ to help!
(positive emotion)

A: Please keep your _____ and _____ inside the train at all times.
(single body part) (body part plural)

B: If you get lost, check the map, pick up a help phone or find a Skytrain attendant wearing a _____ yellow and blue vest.
(adjective)

C: Once you reach your stop, _____ your way to the faregates to tap out.
(verb)

ALL: Thank you for taking transit. Enjoy your trip to _____!
(same fictional place as before)

NOUNS are the names of places, people, and things. (gym, Elmo, scissors, turkey)

VERBS are words that describe an action. (draw, hug, wave)

ADJECTIVES are words that describe nouns. (afraid, stinky, fast, lazy)

Get on board!

KIDS 12 & UNDER RIDE FREE